CIRCUIT QUARTERLY MEETING.

It is not often that a summer picnic and a

Church Meeting combine to offer a pleasant half-day, such as was enjoyed by a number of ladies and gentlemen on Wednesday last.

Some time ago, an invitation came from the Rev. Mr. W. W. W. of the Wesleyan

Church, that they would be pleased to throw open their house and grounds for the use of the ladies of the Wesleyan Church, on Wednesday last. As may be supposed, the invitation was gratefully accepted, and the event was very successful. The ladies about 40 persons availing themselves of the pleasure.

Since Mr. Cook's company, "The Grange" has been greatly improved and beautified, and when other projected alterations are completed,

it will be a most delightful spot.

On the lawn, a long table was tastefully

and lavishly spread with a variety of food,

including dishes of freshly picked strawberries,

and other delicacies. The ladies were hospitally met and invited to the table. The Rev. Mr. W. W. W. of the

NOTES BY THE TYKE.
Mr. Thomas Graves, who when a youth was a Pupil teacher at the Rothwell National School, in Mr. B. Nicholson's time, has been associated as a scholar with Mr. James and George Armitage, Mr. John B. Sear and others at the late Mr. Fris's School, at Churchfields. Mr. Graves is now representative of the big London firm of type foundry Messrs John Haddon & Co.

NOTES BY THE TYKE.
The street name plates our Council have been putting up are much appreciated, but when names are put in such permanent characters as cast iron it is as well to be accurate in spelling. I noticed on passing along Commercial Street the other day that for "Holmes Street" we have substituted "Holmes Street." On the other side of the road we have "Jail Yard," it used to be "Goal Yard," and whilst spelling is correct, but when one has been so long in the way to keep it without there are obvious reasons for a change.

NOTES BY THE TYKE.
Cycles and motor carriages I see are being put up on various appliances on our hills here. There is need for caution in coming down Wood Lane and along the narrow part of Oulton Lane before coming to the junction of Oulton Lane, and both these narrow lanes have been indicated.

NOTES BY THE TYKE.
The Rothwell "Mentall" singers have again started rehearsing and are likely to have a chorus this year running into three figures. Already some of the soloists have been engaged and there is promise that on the 27th proc. another real musical treat will be afforded. My friend, Mr. Chas. Gibson—the Tyke in verse—would be happy to be amongst them. I was at the rehearsal on Saturday afternoon last, at which there was a large quantity of goods for disposal and these found a ready sale.

NOTES BY THE TYKE.
Tea was afterwards provided in the evening the large hall was crowded at an entertainment given mostly by day school children and Gladys Miller, kindergarten manager, who was conducted on Saturday afternoon last, at which there was a large quantity of goods for disposal and these found a ready sale.

ROTHWELL LABOUR PARTY AND ITS SUNDAY MORNING MEETINGS.
The Editors of the Rothwell Times,
Dear Sir,
Will you allow me a small space in which to express an opinion relative to certain questions which are being dealt with by the Rothwell Labour Party and its Sunday Morning Meetings.
